

How to Reconcile your 2018 Healthcare Expenses

As employee reimbursements from DataPath begin to arrive, you are likely getting questions from employees about how to reconcile their healthcare expenses. Such as: Who do I owe? How much do I owe? How do I know I've been fully reimbursed what is due to me?

We have put together a list of tasks to go through this process, step-by-step.

By clicking the link below you will have access to this reconciliation guide, as well as screenshots from both BCBSVT and MyRSC. We have also included an excel template to get employees started with the process.

We encourage you to send this out to your employees to assist them with the reconciliation of their 2018 claims.
