General Instructions for Forms 1094-B and 1095-B

Purpose of Form

Form 1095-B is used to report certain information to the IRS and to taxpayers about individuals who are covered by minimum essential coverage. Eligibility for certain types of minimum essential coverage can affect a taxpayer's eligibility for the premium tax credit.

Minimum essential coverage includes government-sponsored programs, eligible employer-sponsored plans, individual market plans, and other coverage the Department of Health and Human Services designates as minimum essential coverage. Minimum essential coverage is described in more detail under Who Must File, later.

TIP Minimum essential coverage doesn't include coverage consisting solely of excepted benefits. Excepted benefits include vision and dental coverage not part of a comprehensive health insurance plan, workers' compensation coverage, and coverage limited to a specified disease or illness.

Who Must File

Every person that provides minimum essential coverage to an individual during a calendar year must file an information return reporting the coverage. Filers will use Form 1094-B (transmittal) to submit Forms 1095-B (returns).

Employers (including government employers) subject to the employer shared responsibility provisions sponsoring self-insured group health plans generally will report information about the coverage in Part III of Form 1095-C instead of on Form 1095-B. However, employers that offer employer-sponsored self-insured health coverage to non-employees who enroll in the coverage may use Form 1095-B, rather than Form 1095-C, Part III, to report coverage for those individuals and other family members. In general, employers with 50 or more full-time employees (including full-time equivalent employees) during the prior calendar year are subject to the employer shared responsibility provisions. See the Instructions for Forms 1094-C and 1095-C for more information about who must file Forms 1094-C and 1095-C and for more information about reporting coverage for non-employees. Small employers that aren't subject to the employer shared responsibility provisions sponsoring self-insured group health plans will use Forms 1094-B and 1095-B to report information about covered individuals.

Insured coverage. Health insurance issuers and carriers must file Form 1095-B for most health insurance coverage, including individual market coverage and insured coverage sponsored by employers. However, health insurance issuers and carriers don't report coverage under the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), Medicaid, Medicare (including Medicare Advantage), or the Basic Health Program provided through health insurance companies. These types of coverage are reported by the government sponsors of those programs.

In addition, health insurance issuers and carriers aren't required to file Form 1095-B to report coverage in individual market qualified health plans that individuals enroll in through Health Insurance Marketplaces. This coverage generally is reported by Marketplaces on Form 1095-A. However, health insurance issuers are required to file Form 1095-B to report on coverage for employees obtained through the Small Business Health Options Program (SHOP). For coverage in 2019 (filing in 2020), health insurance issuers and carriers are encouraged (but not required) to report coverage in catastrophic health plans enrolled in through the Marketplace.

Eligible Employer-Sponsored Plans

Eligible employer-sponsored plans are minimum essential coverage and include:

1. Group health insurance coverage for employees under:
 - a. A governmental plan, such as the Federal Employees Health Benefits program.
 - b. An insured plan or coverage offered in the small or large group market within a state.
 - c. A grandfathered health plan offered in a group market.
2. A self-insured group health plan for employees.

As noted earlier, minimum essential coverage doesn't include coverage consisting solely of excepted benefits. Excepted benefits include vision and dental coverage not part of a comprehensive health insurance plan, workers' compensation coverage, and coverage limited to a specified disease or illness.

Health insurance issuers or carriers will file Form 1095-B for all insured employer coverage. Plan sponsors are responsible for reporting self-insured employer coverage. Plan sponsors that are employers subject to the employer shared responsibility provisions generally must report the coverage on Form 1095-C and other plan sponsors (such as employers not subject to the employer shared responsibility provisions and sponsors of multiemployer plans) report the coverage on Form 1095-B.

Plan sponsors of self-insured employer coverage include:

- Each participating employer (for its own covered individuals) in a plan or arrangement established or maintained by more than one employer;
- The association, committee, joint board of trustees, or similar group of representatives who establish or maintain a multiemployer plan;
- The employee organization for a plan or arrangement maintained solely by an employee organization; and
- Each participating employer (for its own employees) for a plan or arrangement maintained by a Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangement.

A government employer may designate another government entity to report coverage of its employees. Generally, a designated government entity will file Form 1095-B on behalf of a government employer that sponsors or maintains a self-insured group health plan for its employees only if that government employer isn't subject to the employer shared responsibility provisions, which would require reporting on Form 1095-C. The Instructions for Forms 1094-C and 1095-C contain further information on reporting options for government entities.

Government-Sponsored Programs

The following government-sponsored programs are minimum essential coverage.

1. Medicare Part A.
2. Medicaid, except for the following programs:
 - a. Optional coverage of family planning services.
 - b. Optional coverage of tuberculosis-related services.
 - c. Coverage of pregnancy-related services.
 - d. Coverage of medical emergency services.
 - e. Coverage of medically needy individuals.
3. The Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).
4. The TRICARE program, except for the following options:
 - a. Coverage on a space-available basis in a military treatment facility for individuals who aren't eligible for TRICARE coverage for private sector care.
 - b. Coverage for a line of duty-related injury, illness, or disease for individuals who have left active duty.
5. Coverage administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs that is:
 - a. Coverage consisting of the medical benefits package for eligible veterans.
 - b. CHAMPVA.
 - c. Comprehensive health care for children suffering from spina bifida who are the children of Vietnam veterans and veterans of covered service in Korea.
6. Coverage for Peace Corps volunteers.
7. The Nonappropriated Fund Health Benefits Program of the Department of Defense.

In general, the government agency sponsoring the program will file Form 1095-B. The state agency that administers a Medicaid or CHIP program will file Form 1095-B for coverage under those programs. However, Medicaid and CHIP agencies in U.S. possessions or territories (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) aren't required to report Medicaid or CHIP coverage on Form 1095-B.

When coverage under the Nonappropriated Fund Health Benefits Program of the Department of Defense or TRICARE is reported on Form 1095-B, Part I, line 8, filers should use code C (government-sponsored program).

Coverage designated as minimum essential coverage.

The Department of Health and Human Services has designated the following health benefit plans or arrangements as minimum essential coverage.

1. Medicare Part C (Medicare Advantage).
2. Refugee Medical Assistance.
3. Coverage provided to a business owner under a plan that is eligible employer-sponsored coverage with respect to at least one employee.

4. Coverage under a group health plan provided through insurance regulated by a foreign government if:
 - a. A covered individual is physically absent from the United States for at least 1 day during the month; or
 - b. A covered individual is physically present in the United States for a full month and the coverage provides health benefits within the United States while the individual is outside the United States.
5. The Basic Health Program.
6. Coverage of pregnancy-related services that consists of full Medicaid benefits.
7. Coverage under a section 1115 demonstration waiver program.
8. Specific programs listed at CMS.gov/CCIIO/Programs-and-Initiatives/Health-Insurance-Market-Reforms/Minimum-Essential-Coverage.html (click on the link for “approved plans.”)

Providers of these and later designated programs will file Form 1095-B. The sponsor for the Basic Health Program is the state government agency administering the program.

Coverage in More Than One Minimum Essential Coverage Plan or Program

If, for any month, an individual is covered by more than one minimum essential coverage plan or program that is provided by the same provider, the provider is required to report only one of the plans or programs for that month. For example, if an individual is covered by a self-insured major medical plan and a health reimbursement arrangement (HRA) provided by the same employer for a month, the employer is the provider of both types of coverage and therefore is required to report the coverage of the individual under only one of the arrangements for that month.

Generally, reporting also is not required for an individual’s minimum essential coverage for a month if that minimum essential coverage is offered only to individuals who are also covered by other minimum essential coverage for which reporting is required. For example, an insurance company offering a Medicare or TRICARE supplement for which only individuals enrolled in Medicare or TRICARE are eligible is not required to report coverage under the Medicare or TRICARE supplement.

Under this rule, a state Medicaid agency is not required to report Medicaid coverage for which only individuals enrolled in other minimum essential coverage, such as employer-sponsored coverage or a qualified health plan, are eligible.

This second rule applies to eligible-employer sponsored coverage only if both types of coverage (the supplemental coverage and the eligible-employer sponsored coverage for which section 6055 reporting is required) are offered by the same employer. For example, if an employer offers both an insured group health plan and an HRA that an employee is eligible for if the employee enrolls in the insured group health plan, and an employee enrolls in both, the employer is not required to report the employee’s coverage under the HRA for the months in which the employee is enrolled in both plans. If, however, an individual is covered by an HRA sponsored by one employer and a non-HRA group health plan sponsored by another employer (such as spousal coverage), each employer (or the health insurance issuer or carrier, if the plan is insured) must report the coverage the employer (or issuer or carrier) provides.

For more information on the reporting of supplemental coverage, including the rule on when different entities are treated as a single employer for purposes of the second rule, see Proposed Regulations section 1.6055-1(d)(2) and (3).

When To File

Generally, the return and transmittal form must be filed with the IRS on or before February 28 if filing on paper (March 31 if filing electronically) of the year following the calendar year of coverage.

You will meet the requirement to file if the form is properly addressed and mailed on or before the due date. If the regular due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, file by the next business day. A business day is any day that isn’t a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

For forms filed in 2020 reporting coverage provided in calendar year 2019, Forms 1094-B and 1095-B are required to be filed by February 28, 2020, or March 31, 2020, if filing electronically.

See Statements Furnished to Individuals for information on when Form 1095-B must be furnished.

Extension of Time To File

You can get an automatic 30-day extension of time to file by completing Form 8809 and filing it with the IRS on or before the due date for the Form 1094-B and 1095-B. Form 8809 may be submitted on paper or through the FIRE System either as a fill-in form or an electronic file. No signature or explanation is required for the extension. However, you must file Form 8809 by the due date of the returns in order to get the 30-day extension. Under certain hardship conditions, you may apply for an additional 30-day extension. See Form 8809 and the instructions for more information about extensions of time to file.

How to apply. File Form 8809 as soon as you know that a 30-day extension of time to file is needed. Follow the instructions on Form 8809, which provide information on where to fax or mail your Form 8809. You can also submit the extension request online through the FIRE System. You are encouraged to submit requests using the online fill-in form. See Pub. 1220 for more information on filing online or electronically. See the Instructions for Form 8809 for more information.

How To File

Filing Paper Returns With the IRS

Shipping and mailing. If you're filing on paper, send the forms to the IRS in a flat mailing (not folded) and don't staple or paperclip the forms together. If you're sending many forms, you may send them in conveniently sized packages. On each package, write your name, and number the packages consecutively. Place Form 1094-B in package number one and a copy of Form 1094-B in each additional package. Postal regulations require forms and packages to be sent by first-class mail. Returns filed with the IRS must be printed in landscape format.

Keeping copies. Generally, keep copies of information returns you filed with the IRS or maintain the ability to reconstruct the data for at least 3 years, from the due date of the returns.

If you're required to file 250 or more information returns, you must file electronically. The 250-or-more requirement applies separately to each type of form filed and separately for original and corrected returns. For example, if you must file 500 Forms 1095-B and 100 Forms 1095-C, you must file Forms 1095-B electronically, but you aren't required to file Forms 1095-C electronically. As another example, if you have 150 Forms 1095-B to correct, you may file the corrected returns on paper because they fall under the 250 threshold even if you originally filed 250 or more Forms 1095-B and properly filed those forms electronically. If you have 300 Forms 1095-B to correct, they must be filed electronically. The electronic filing requirement doesn't apply if you apply for and receive a hardship waiver. The IRS encourages you to file electronically even if you're filing fewer than 250 returns.

Waiver. To receive a waiver from the required filing of information returns electronically, submit Form 8508. You are encouraged to file Form 8508 at least 45 days before the due date of the return but no later than the due date of the return. The IRS doesn't process waiver requests until January 1 of the calendar year the returns are due. You can't apply for a waiver for more than one tax year at a time. If you need a waiver for more than one tax year, you must reapply at the appropriate time each year. An approved waiver for original returns will cover corrections only for the same type of return. If you receive an approved waiver, don't send a copy of it to the service center where you file your paper returns. Keep the waiver for your records only.

If you are required to file electronically but fail to do so, and you don't have an approved waiver, you may be subject to a penalty of up to $270 per return unless you establish reasonable cause. However, you can file up to 250 returns on paper; those returns will not be subject to a penalty for failure to file electronically. The penalty applies separately to original returns and corrected returns.

Pub. 5165, Guide for Electronically Filing Affordable Care Act (ACA) Information Returns for Software Developers and Transmitters, specifies the communication procedures, transmission formats, business rules, and validation procedures, and explains when a return will be accepted, accepted with errors or rejected for returns filed electronically for calendar year 2019 through the ACA Information Return (AIR) system. To develop software for use with the AIR system, software developers, transmitters, and issuers, including employers filing their own Forms 1094-B and 1095-B, should use the guidelines provided in Pub. 5165, along with the Extensible Markup Language (XML) Schemas published on IRS.gov.

Reminder. The formatting directions in these instructions are for the preparation of paper returns. When filing forms electronically, the formatting set forth in the XML Schemas and Business Rules published on IRS.gov must be followed rather than the formatting directions in these instructions. For more information regarding electronic filing, see Pubs. 5164 and 5165.

Substitute Returns Filed With the IRS

See Pub. 5223, General Rules and Specifications for Affordable Care Act Substitute Forms 1095-A, 1094-B, 1095-B, 1094-C, and 1095-C, for specifications for private printing of substitute information returns. You may not request special consideration. Only forms that conform to the official form and the specifications in Pub. 5223 are acceptable for filing with the IRS. Substitute returns filed with the IRS must be printed in landscape format.

Void Box

Don't use this box on Form 1095-B.

Corrected Form 1095-B

For information about filing corrections for electronically filed forms, see section 7.1 of Pub. 5165. A corrected return should be filed as soon as possible after an error is discovered. File corrected returns as follows.

- Form 1095-B: Fully complete Form 1095-B and enter an "X" in the CORRECTED checkbox. File a Form 1094-B

Transmittal with the corrected Forms 1095-B. (Do not file a corrected Form 1094-B.)

- Recipient's statement: A copy of the corrected Form 1095-B must be furnished to the individual who received the original Form 1095-B.

Note. Enter an “X” in the CORRECTED checkbox only when correcting a Form 1095-B previously filed with the IRS. If you are correcting a Form 1095-B that was previously furnished to a recipient, but not filed with the IRS, write, print, or type CORRECTED on the new Form 1095-B furnished to the recipient.

See the next chart for examples of errors and step-by-step instructions for filing corrected returns.

You must file a corrected return to report retroactive changes in coverage.

Example 1. Tim enrolls in health insurance with Ace Insurance Company in January 2019. Tim fails to pay his premiums for November and December 2019 and January 2020. Ace sends Tim a Form 1095-B on January 31, 2020, reporting coverage for every month in 2019. On February 1, 2020, Ace cancels Tim’s coverage effective November 1, 2019. Ace must send Tim a corrected Form 1095-B reporting that Tim was covered only for January through October 2019. If Ace filed the Form 1095-B with the IRS, it must file a corrected Form 1095-B with the IRS reporting coverage only for January through October 2019.

Example 2. Sharon is enrolled in Medicaid for January through September 2019. The Medicaid agency files a Form 1095-B and furnishes a statement to Sharon reporting coverage for January through September 2019. In April 2020, Sharon is approved for Medicaid coverage beginning on November 1, 2019. The Medicaid agency must file a corrected Form 1095-B with the IRS and furnish Sharon a corrected statement reporting coverage for January through September and November through December 2019.

Statements Furnished to Individuals

Filers of Form 1095-B must furnish a copy by March 2, 2020, to the person identified as the “responsible individual” on the form for coverage in 2019. However, the IRS will not impose a penalty for failure to furnish a copy of Form 1095-B if certain conditions are met. See Notice 2019-63 and Information Reporting Penalties for more information about this penalty relief.

The “responsible individual” is the person who, based on a relationship to the covered individuals, the primary name on the coverage, or some other circumstances, should receive the statement. Generally, the statement recipient should be the taxpayer (tax filer) who would be liable for the individual shared responsibility payment for the covered individuals, if that person is known. A statement recipient may be a parent if only minor children are covered individuals, a primary subscriber for insured coverage, an employee or former employee in the case of employer-sponsored coverage, a uniformed services sponsor for TRICARE, or another individual who should receive the statement. Filers may, but aren't required to, furnish a statement to more than one recipient.

Copies of Form 1095-B furnished to recipients may include a truncated SSN or other TIN, if applicable, of the statement recipient and covered individuals by showing only the last four digits of the SSN or other TIN and replacing the first five digits with asterisks (*) or Xs. Copies of Form 1095-B furnished to recipients also may truncate the EIN of an employer reported in Part II, if any. The filer’s EIN may not be truncated on the statement furnished to recipients. Truncation of TINs, including EINs, is not allowed on returns filed with the IRS.

In general, statements must be furnished on paper by mail (or hand delivered), unless the recipient affirmatively consents to receive the statement in an electronic format. If mailed, the statement must be sent to the recipient’s last known permanent address, or, if no permanent address is known, to the recipient’s temporary address.

Consent to furnish statement electronically. Except as provided below, a filer is required to obtain affirmative consent to furnish a statement electronically. The requirement to obtain affirmative consent to furnish a statement electronically ensures that statements are sent electronically only to individuals who are able to access them. The consent must relate specifically to receiving Form 1095-B electronically. A recipient may consent on paper or electronically, such as by email. If consent is on paper, the recipient must confirm the consent electronically. A statement may be furnished electronically by email or by informing the recipient how to access the statement on the filer’s website. Statements reporting coverage under an expatriate health plan, however, may be furnished electronically unless the recipient has explicitly refused to consent to receive the statement in an electronic format.

Extension of Time To Furnish Statement to Recipients

Notice 2019-63 automatically extends the due date for furnishing Form 1095-B from January 31, 2020, to March 2, 2020. Thus, no additional extensions will be granted.

Substitute Statements to Recipients

If you aren't using the official IRS form to furnish statements to recipients, see Pub. 5223, which explains the requirements for format and content of substitute statements to recipients. You may develop them yourself or buy them from a private printer.

Information Reporting Penalties

A provider of minimum essential coverage that fails to comply with the information reporting requirements may be subject to the general information reporting penalty provisions for failure to file correct information returns and failure to furnish correct payee statements. For returns required to be made and statements required to be furnished for 2019 tax year returns, the following apply.

- The penalty for failure to file a correct information return is $270 for each return for which the failure occurs, with the total penalty for a calendar year not to exceed $3,339,000.
- The penalty for failure to provide a correct payee statement is $270 for each statement for which the failure occurs, with the total penalty for a calendar year not to exceed $3,339,000.

However, no penalty will be imposed for failure to furnish a correct payee statement if the following conditions are met: (1) you post a notice prominently on your website stating that responsible individuals may receive a copy of their 2019 Form 1095-B upon request; (2) the website provides an email address and a physical address to which a request may be sent and a telephone number that individuals can contact if they have questions; and (3) you furnish a 2019 Form 1095-B to any responsible individual upon request within 30 days of the date the request is received. See Notice 2019-63.

- Special rules apply that increase the per-return and per-statement and total penalties with no maximum limitations if there is intentional disregard of the requirement to file the returns and furnish recipient statements.
- No penalty will be imposed for reporting incorrect or incomplete information on the return or statement if you can show that you made good-faith efforts to comply with the information reporting requirements. The IRS will take into account whether you made reasonable efforts to prepare for reporting the required information to the IRS and furnishing it to individuals, such as gathering and transmitting the necessary data to an agent to prepare the data for submission to the IRS or testing your ability to transmit information to the IRS. See Notice 2019-63.

Waiver of Penalties

The penalties may be waived if the failure was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. See section 6724 and Regulations section 301.6724-1 and Proposed Regulations section 1.6055-1(h). For additional information, see Pub. 1586.
